“Cardinal” Gerhard Ludwig Müller “Manifesto of Faith”

Several weeks ago we began printing the ‘Manifesto of Faith’ released by Gerhard Cardinal Müller, the former prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, on February 8, 2019. In this short manuscript he addresses the confusion in 5 areas of Catholic doctrine: Christology, ecclesiology, sacraments, morality, and eschatology. This selection now includes Cardinal Müller’s conclusion to his “public testimony about the truth of revelation” in response to “growing confusion about the doctrine of the Faith.” For the complete doctrine of the Faith.” For the complete document, check the link on the parish website: sttimothyparish.org

6. Call

As workers in the vineyard of the Lord, we all have a responsibility to recall these fundamental truths by clinging to what we ourselves have received. We want to give courage to go the way of Jesus Christ with determination, in order to obtain eternal life by following His commandments (CCC 2075).

Let us ask the Lord to let us know how great the gift of the Catholic Faith is, through which opens the door to eternal life. “For he that shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation: The Son of Man also will be ashamed of him, when He shall come in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.” (Mark 8:38). Therefore, we are committed to strengthening the Faith by confessing the truth which is Jesus Christ Himself.

We too, and especially we bishops and priests, are addressed when Paul, the Apostle of Jesus Christ, gives this admonition to his companion and successor, Timothy: “I charge thee, before God and Jesus Christ, Who shall judge the living and the dead, by His coming, and His kingdom: Preach the word: be instant in season, out of season: reprove, entreat, rebuke in all patience and doctrine. For there shall be a time, when they will not endure sound doctrine; but, according to their own desires, they will heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears: And will indeed turn away their hearing from the truth, but will be turned unto fables. But be thou vigilant, labour in all things, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil thy ministry. Be sober.” (2 Tim 4:1-5).

May Mary, the Mother of God, implore for us the grace to remain faithful without wavering to the confession of the truth about Jesus Christ.

United in faith and prayer
